Notes Regarding the Use of Standards

1. The standards can be used by anyone. Note, however, that when you use any part of a standard, expressly indicate the number, title, and version of the standard you are quoting or the sections of which you are modifying or supplementing.
2. Use of any part of the standards for commercial purposes is restricted to HL7 Japan members.
(Restrictions do not apply when quoting for requirement-specification or research purposes.)
3. The format of the standards might be changed without notice.
